The Latipac

Volume Two

1931

OLIVIA RANEY LIBRARY
4016 Carya Drive
Raleigh, NC 27610

Published by the
Senior Class of the Broughton High School
Raleigh, North Carolina

A Word from the Editor

THE purpose of this second volume of the LATIPAC is to recall fond memories of the past, and to show the spirit, ideals, and progress of our school to the outside world. It is to inspire within each a greater love for his Alma Mater, and a firmer determination to bring honor and glory to our "Dear Old Broughton High" in all time yet to come.

Dedication

TO Paul S. Daniel, our former Principal at Broughton High and now our efficient Superintendent, who has shown a profound interest in us, we dedicate the second volume of the LATIPAC, as an expression of our deep appreciation to one whose foresight and ability has inspired us to do our best.

Climb On

ALAS, ye seniors have reached the top
Be ye proud but do not stop,
A winding road lies far ahead
The goal is called success,
The light of knowledge shows us the way
To fame and happiness
Climb on! Climb on!

The road is long and often hard,
Misfortunes you may pass,
Smile on and never fail to show
The spirit of our class
Climb on! Climb on!

In future years when great renown
Some of our mates in face have found,
We'll live again our high school days
Though many years have passed away
Climb on! Climb on!

MARGUERITE ASHWORTH.

Class History

OUR Freshman year in high school began at Hugh Morson. Like all other Freshmen, we began "green." We had a class meeting every week during the Activity period, but most of the time was spent in getting acquainted with high school customs.

Although the class was organized, our Sophomore year was spent in chaos. Charles Harris was president and Ben Dalton, secretary. There was little for us to do but live up to our motto, "Seeking wisdom daily," and look forward to the time when we could be called "upper classmen."

Our Junior year was very eventful, indeed. We, the class of '31 entered the New High School as Juniors. The crowning event of the year was the Junior-Senior banquet. We had a candy sale, rummage sale, and a "Mack Teacher" program to raise money for the banquet which came before we knew it. After the banquet, we got down to work and soon found the year drawing to the close. At last we were Seniors—our highest ambition realized.

Seniors! Who doesn't aspire to be one! Fairley Scales was president and Miss Thomas and Miss Fleming, advisers. We had many class meetings before we got down to actual work. Beatrice Cotner was elected Editor-in-Chief of the LATIPAC, and Warner Wells, Business Manager. The Juniors gave us a banquet and later we had a Senior banquet, parties, dances, and a cabaret. We got our diplomas May 29. Then, we realized we were not so glad to leave school. But now that the Class of '31 is no more, we have all resolved to be a loyal true graduate of Broughton High.

Three cheers for the Class of '31,
The class we love so well,
Our ladies fair and knights so brave,
Their praises now to swell.
We love each other and grow sad
As time to part draws nigh,
But the old ties remain the same
Though we must say goodbye.

ELLEN KLUTTZ.

Class Prophecy

RIP VAN FLETCHER, being seriously fatigued from listening to exceedingly boresome lectures on various subjects, desired greatly the benefit of a long afternoon nap. Accordingly he crawled laboriously into a very dark corner of the attic and dozed off. When he awoke and attempted to rise, he found he was barely able to move, since he was securely bound with spider webs. He finally struggled free, and started to walk down the steps. To his dismay he stumbled over an eight-foot beard which he had grown, and fell headlong down the steps. As he picked himself up he saw an old schoolmate of his, Eloise Furr, dressed as a maid. Almost at the same instant she espied him and giving an unearthly scream, she turned and fled. Rip was unable to comprehend the cause for such a commotion until a glance in the mirror showed him that his face was covered with whiskers, in which several nests of mice were residing. Accordingly he went to his room, and after about two hours of labor, he succeeded in making himself presentable. This done, he sauntered into the street.

Now Rip Van Fletcher, being on a slightly higher plane of intelligence than his great-great-great-grandfather, Rip Van Winkle, realized he had slept a good while, but just how long, he was unable to say. He decided to buy a paper from a little boy who called himself English Raffield, Jr. When he went to pay the boy, Rip found that he had no money except a large dollar bill that was in circulation back in 1929. When he gave this to the boy, the lad thought it was counterfeit and almost got Rip in trouble.

He finally succeeded in quieting the boy and as he continued walking down the street he saw Fairley Scales leaning against a brick building and holding two crutches in his hands. Rip rushed up to greet him but was quieted by a curt, "Hush!" A second later a voice came from within saying: "Monday night, February 10, Amos N' Andy brought to you," etc.

Fairley was courteous enough when the program was over, and from him Rip learned the date and all about his classmates back at N. B. H. S.

It was 1975. Fairley Scales was the victim of the war of "Man Against Insects," and sold penny pencils.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dalton (Mrs. Dalton was formerly Miss Frances Eigne) have just run up from their home at the South Pople to spend the week-end with relatives. Mr. Dalton gets on fine with his "in-laws."

In a discussion of the national administration Rip, Jr. learned that President Joseph Walker was being frequently criticized for the drought which was spreading over the country. President Walker declared that he was doing all possible, but that he was greatly hindered by Congress. In retaliation Senators Booker and Hiner and Representatives Bagwell and Crocker of North Carolina and Senator Harvey Harris of South Carolina (he was run out of North Carolina in 1937 for playing a slot machine) were leading a movement for impeachment of the President.

When Rip inquired about the girls of the Class of 1931 (Rip Van Fletcher would) Fairly said he had found Elizabeth Williams, Marjorie Blankenship, Margaret Young and Elizabeth Gerow knitting in an Old Ladies Home, where he went to sell his pencils.

Rip learned that Doc Wells, greatest scientist of the day had just succeeded in bringing back to life, Lilly Doo Von Sautersee, II, the Class of '31 mascot, by the use of monkey brains.

One of the saddest cases of all his classmates was that of Professor John Upchurch, who taught French and Spanish so long that he forgot what little English he ever knew, and had to start all over, building blocks in a kindergarten, then, alas, the tragedy occurred—

Fairley related to Rip how "Bee" had waited forty-four years for his return. Since she was the greatest violinist of the century, it was natural that such men as Samuel Paul, President of the New York, Chicago, and Northwestern Railroad should propose to her. Nevertheless, she turned them all down, until a year ago yesterday, having despaired of Rip's ever returning, she married a wealthy old pawnbroker, Albert Cox. With his heart broken by the news, Rip Van Fletcher turned and stumbled out of sight, headed toward the Neuse River.

The Last Will and Testament

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA }
COUNTY OF WAKE } CITY OF RALEIGH.

WE, the surviving members of the class of '31 of the Needham B. Broughton High School, after having been duly examined and found mentally (?) perfect by the faculty of the said school, having certain privileges and accomplishments of which we wish to dispose, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament; and do also declare any former or future ones to be null and void.

Should any dispute arise over the distribution of the said property then this shall be sold at public auction, the proceeds of which shall go to the city of Raleigh for the purpose of restoring her to her ancient intellectual position.

Thus, we do solemnly will and bequeath those said privileges and accomplishments as follows:

ARTICLE I

To the incoming Seniors, in all seriousness we do will:

Section 1. The first three rows in Chapel with the privilege of applauding excessively, of sleeping (snoring prohibited, especially that kind of snoring which is interrupted at the end of each snore by a loud, long whistle) during speeches, Girl Reserves programs, and other sleep disturbing factors.

Section 2. The remaining supply of the world's sheepskins after our diplomas are whacked from it.

Section 3. The unsupervised Senior study halls with the privileges of dancing, running punch boards and tip books, and, at rare intervals, studying.

Section 4. The Senior privileges, hoping that they will honor and respect them as their predecessors have done.

ARTICLE II

To the incoming Juniors we do solemnly will:

Section 1. In the event of the continuance of "Hoover Prosperity" instead of the formal annual banquet, the privilege of feeding the Seniors hot dogs, cooked on radiators in the Auditorium.

Section 2. Our school spirit.

ARTICLE III

To the incoming Sophs we take pleasure in leaving:

Section 1. An undying spirit of sophistication.

Section 2. The privilege of inventing and using any means of chastisement on the Freshmen.

ARTICLE IV

To the grandest class of all, we do will:

Section 1. The privilege of being the only class to whisper, wiggle, and squirm in Chapel.

Section 2. The privilege of using midget automobiles in the halls as accident preventives.

ARTICLE V

In order that the Faculty might not feel slighted, we gladly will:

Section 1. Our gratitude for:

A. The patience and many kindnesses shown us during our high school careers.

B. Their coöperation in the many extra-curricula activities.

Section 2. Our love and devotion (?).

ARTICLE VI

Added to the afore mentioned privileges we do will those certain personal accomplishments as follows:

Section 1. Sammy Paul leaves his athletic ability to Roland Danielson, hoping that some day he may be a four letter athlete.

Section 2. Warner Wells sees fit to leave his scientific ability to William Farrar, Esq., etc.

Section 3. Jo Ball wishes to make it known that she leaves her flirtaciousness to Kathleen Bray.

Section 4. Louise Correll wants to will her saintly ways to Catherine Glascock.

Section 5. Fairley Scales, better known as "Rose Petals Scales" leaves his famous come-hither look to Doctor George Bailey.

Section 6. Frances Hill Norris says she wants to leave her tall stature to little Eleanor Seagle.

Section 7. Ella May Noell informed the Testator that Naomi Ellisberg could secure her man-getting strategy upon application.

Section 8. To Mr. Shaw we all leave the presidency of the League of Henpecked Husbands.

Section 9. Because of the lack of space we shall have to cut short this foolishness until next year.

We, the Seniors of the Broughton High School in witness whereof, have to this, our last will and testament set our hands and seals on this the twenty-ninth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred, and thirty-one.

Broughton High

OUR school days will soon be ended,
But memories linger still.
In old Broughton High we were befriended,
We love her and always will.

CHORUS

Dear Broughton High, dear Broughton High,
We'll back you to stand
Against the best in the land.
Dear Broughton High, dear Broughton High

We want her to always be our light
As she did in our childhood day;
To guide our feet in the paths of night
And keep us from going astray.

And now dear friends, we must leave you
For the time is drawing nigh
But we want you to remember and always be true
To dear old Broughton High

Words by MAYBELLE KOONCE.

Sailing

We're leaving soon for a long, long trip,
On the sea of life will glide our ship,
We've all strived hard for this destination,
To reach the port of graduation.

We will sail North or South, East or West,
Where our fancy's whim inclines us,
But we'll keep the memories in our breast,
Of friends we've left behind us.

Our hearts will ever more be true,
Tho' now we sadly say adieu,
Our song will not be spoiled by tears,
For loyal friendship lasts for years.

MARGUERITE ASHWORTH, '31.

Coming Seniors

Here's to you Seniors to come,
I wish for you the fun,
That we as Seniors had.
The fun that as Seniors made us happy and glad.

Coming Seniors pass your work,
So that you will not be left in the lurch,
Pass your English, History, and Math.
So that you will tread the straight and narrow path.

Coming Seniors do everything that is right,
And be true to your colors, green and white.
Get your work in on time, do not be late,
So that with the others you will graduate.

Coming Seniors when you do graduate,
Go through life being true and straight.
Remember your former friends in school
And when you meet them do not be cool.

Trees

Trees in autumn are extravagant things,
Their wiry little branches bearing leaves of gold,
And nothing can excel the songs they sing
Every tree, young or old,
Seems an author of a story never told.
Across lanes their leaves seem to weave,
Making an image of the seas
And looking grateful of the acquaintance which they make,
They entwine around each other 'till it looks as if they'll break.

S. G. RIGGS, '33.

The Music of the Forest

High above the forest trees,
The pine tree rises its lofty head.
Proud and majestic, staunch and strong.
Deeply rooted in its forest bed.

At night the winds play music,
In and out the rough brown branches.
Sometimes crooning, sometimes shrieking,
Then it's dryad comes and dances.

The Jungle

ABOUT him jungle flowers grew
Above him jungle birdies flew
The lazy call from beast to mate
He stopped to listen and to wait.
Down the vine grown jungle trail
There came to him a distant hail;
Through the green foliage he peered
And as the ancient path was cleared
A tall dark man came into sight
As noisy bugs and birds took flight
The two men met and wandered on
While about them lay jungle unknown
High above in the swaying trees
Monkeys chattered and swayed the leaves
In a golden glow the sun in the west
Dipped and left man to his rest.
The camp fire lights glittered and twinkled
Brows of the men in thought were wrinkled
For the mystery of the jungle puzzled all
The animal and birds and their call
All there for man to study and learn
From the prowling lion to the dainty fern.

Mother

God gave her a soul like a star,
Filled with love and patience as most mothers are,
But one day he took her above,
To live with the angels in peace and love.

When she was lying sick in bed,
She called me to her side and said:
"The Heavenly Father is calling me,
And soon I shall be leaving thee."

She closed her eyes and then was gone
Leaving me here in the world alone.
God took her on the other shore,
To live in His Kingdom forever more.

How I wish tonight he would open the gate,
And let me go before it's too late,
To rest in Heaven by her side,
And with her and the angels ever abide.

MAYBELLE KOONCE, '31.

The Bluff

I was ambitious and craved useful work;
Then I became lazy and wanted to shirk.
My teachers were helpful, encouragin' enough,
But still I was blind, and thought I could bluff.

My classmates were busy with their work to do,
While I in my corner had nothing in view.
And then the sad moment, when all passed with ease,
I flunked the course and felt like a cheese.

Memories

HOW nice it is to sit and think
About the fun and work
That we have done. Upon the brink
Of middle age, I sit and think.

School days seem so near;
School days seem so dear;
Never again need I fear
The worries I left back there.

How nice it is to sit and think
About the folks I used to know;
How with them I used to go
To shows and plays and things.

How I wish that I could be
With my old gang and go to see
The many things there use to be
There, at school.

Needham B. Broughton High School

Here our days we spend together,
Unless some sickness makes us pay.
Whether it's wet or sunny weather,
It's here we work and here we play.
Our lessons may seem hard or easy,
And in Home Ec. our hands get greasy;
We may get tired of taking gym,
And on dark days our eyes grow dim;
On snowy days we may get hit,
Or, while playing baseball, lose the mit;
Our grades in English, math, and history
May to our parents seem a mystery—

But, after all, despite these sorrows,
This is the place where our tomorrows
For four years more shall we all pass.
Cheer up, '35, be a joyful class!

This School of Ours

There is a school called Broughton High
With a beautiful background of trees and sky.
It's like a monastery or a castle of old,
Where the monks lived—or the knights so bold.
It has huge white columns and wrought-iron doors,
With wood-worked windows and linoleum floors.
There's a big auditorium where many a treat
Is given the students when there they meet.
Its beautiful halls are our pride and our joy.
This school is fit for a king's girl or boy.

God in Nature

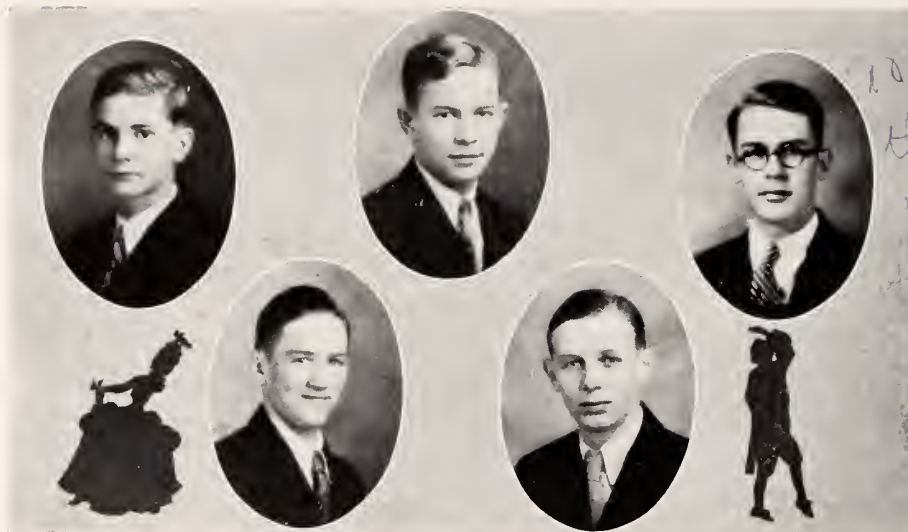

THE trees lift high their arms to Him—
The one Majestic Power,
And they seem to be telling the busy world
That He cares for the smallest flower.
The mountains soar high into the clouds—
Giants, o'er-reaching all,
But they stand in awe in the presence of Him
Who notices the sparrow's fall.
The breezes murmur a psalm-like prayer
As they blow their cool breath many ways,
And the brooks and rivers, as they travel along,
Are singing a song of praise.
The chipmunk and squirrel in their woodland home
Are fearless of windstorm and snare;
They nod to the wild rose and violet and say,
"He knows every need—He'll take care."
The sun shining bright from his place up above,
Fills the earth with radiant light;
And the moon and the stars fill the darkness with glow—
He's watching us all through the night.
The whole Universe is like a great wonderland
From the heights to the rich brown sod,
And all seems whispering in reverent praise—
The one supreme word—God!

The Student Cooperative Association

THE Student Coöperative Association is the only organization in the school that functions for the good of the entire school and where membership embraces every member of the student body and faculty. The primary object of the association is to raise the morale of the student body. To do this, it vests its executive power in a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Sergeant-at-Arms. These are elected yearly from the upper classes. The legislative power is vested in a student council composed of a representative from each home room. This council meets bi-monthly and discusses the various problems concerning the school. The Judicial power is vested in a form of court known as the "Student Conference Hour." The duties of this conference are to discuss with each student reported to the Conference the gravity of his offense. It does not undertake to punish but attempts to keep him from committing the same offense again. The Student Council has under its jurisdiction five committees whose duties are to enforce the rules of the building, grounds, and the like.

It seems appropriate to mention here that the Raleigh High Schools were host to the annual meeting of North Carolina Student Council Congress. The officers of the Congress were Charles U. Harris of Raleigh, President; Phil Hammer of Wilmington, Vice President; and Alma Hedrick of Salisbury, Secretary-Treasurer.

THE Fred A. Olds Bank was founded in the Fred A. Olds school two years ago. Last spring before school was out we decided to bring it over here in high school. We got permission and aid from Mr. Daniel and Mr. Srygley and on September 24, 1930, we had our official opening here. Since we have been here we feel proud of our progress as shown by this statement:

BANK STATEMENT

| LIABILITIES | |
|--------------------------|----------------|
| Capital Stock | Good Will |
| Surplus and Profits..... | $ 22.47 |
| Saving Deposits | 168.38 |
| Checking Deposits | 86.45 |
| | <hr/> $277.30 |
| ASSETS | |
| Loans and Discounts..... | $ 55.50 |
| Cash and in Banks..... | 221.80 |
| | <hr/> $277.30 |

Our banking program for this school, has two outstanding aims; first, to get each pupil to carry a savings account, and second, to serve all classes, clubs, and organizations in checking accounts, making loans, and transacting business in general. The Savings accounts for the pupils have been conducted by home room bank officials. Each class has had one day in the week as a special banking day and the home room officials have received the deposits in their respective rooms, bringing the deposit slips and reports to the bank at their appointed time. During the fall term over 300 pupils had savings deposits in the bank. Our savings plan permits withdrawals twice a school year, the second week in December and the second week in May. It is our desire that many of the pupils will continue to deposit on their savings account and will not withdraw their money until they will have been graduated from high school.

Aside from our financial growth, in the bank room have been added a desk, table and box, new bank pass book printed by the Hugh Morson press. Here in our own building we have mimeographed our needed balance sheets, checks, deposit slips, home room slips, weekly cashier's blanks, etc. In the last directors' meetings, plans were begun for carrying on our work next year.

ARTHUR TAYLOR,
Secretary.

Girls' Athletic Association

WHEN the chance to become a member of the state-wide Girls' Athletic Association came to the girls of N. B. H. S. they received it with great enthusiasm. Of course, it would be too ideal to be true to expect every girl to be actively interested. The council, composed of the advisers and officers of the association realized that probably out of the nearly 500 girls in Broughton High School some would prove not to be really interested at all, many would be only half interested, while others would give themselves rather whole heartedly to one or more phases of the work. But who could say which girls out of a large group would be most interested and reap the most benefit from a "league of girls" with no requirements for membership other than a desire to "belong." Since practically every girl in school signified her desire to join the Association, the larger group was divided into four smaller groups. Each group has its advisers, student leaders, and other officers. Of course the organization is primarily "Athletic," but the girls have already learned that it is not necessary to be an outstanding athlete in order to be a real member, and many have already felt, in their games and in their hikes, that sportsmanship and comradeship which can not be so fully felt through mere classroom contacts.

It is the hope of every girl really interested to be able to "win a letter." This is a very worthy objective when it is remembered what winning a letter represents. It represents hours of helpful exercise—maybe of organized games and tournaments with friendly rivalry and good sportsmanship—maybe miles of walking in the fresh open air, with rest here and there in the fields or in the woods among the trees and flowers beside cool streams—hours of friendly chatter, sometimes serious, sometimes frivolous, but generally wholesome; it represents at least one period of three months' training when a girl voluntarily gives up those things generally considered injurious to health and does certain things conducive to health; it represents the recognition by the council of at least acceptably good "citizenship." Winning a letter represents things that money can't buy; a girl does not need to spend one extra cent in order to win points on her letter. This gives to the girl of little means the same chance to develop her innate fine qualities as it does to the girl with more than average spending money.

The organization is very young and this year will not see the accomplishment of all the things possible in a year, but already there are more than a hundred girls in "training," more than a hundred have been taking part in the tournament games, many are interested in "Field Day," an increasing number are hiking in groups, a few are riding horseback and numbers are playing tennis, etc. We are hoping that what we can do this first year will be the beginning of a growth and development which can best be measured in the hearts of the girls who are benefited.

With a determined, fighting football team, Raleigh Highs were the winners of the Eastern Championship. Losing to Charlotte in the State Finals, Raleigh showed superiority in first downs made—14 to 6, the reversal of the score. The purple hurricane lost only the Championship game and defeated Wilmington, Durham, Fayetteville, and Oxford by two touchdown margins. Rocky Mount, runners-up in the conference, were defeated 6 to 0. Wilson, with a fighting eleven, tied the cocky Raleigh hurricane 0 to 0. Allen Bailey and Emerson Thomas, all-state players, were fine aids to the team. A light, fast backfield composed of Capt. Dunaway, Capt. elect Ferrell, Womble, Paul, Kametches, and Scales played good ball behind a fast charging line, which included Cox, Bailey, Thomas, Hill, S. and R. Hudson, Worth, Ellisberg, Frazier, and Reeves. Good support helped this team to make one of the best records of any preceding Raleigh eleven.

RALEIGH HIGH CAGERS BATTLE FOR BIG TITLE

Coach Spurlock's fast court squad of the Raleigh High School begin a series of important games Tuesday night in tournament play with the 1931 North Carolina high championship as the immediate goal and invitational tourneys as the other attractions.

The championship game is billed for 8 o'clock Wednesday night in the Tin Can at Chapel Hill with Charlotte as the opponent.

As the next move the Raleigh quint together with Charlotte and Wilson, will transfer their activities to Washington and Lee Thursday as entrants in the South Atlantic prep school tourney.

Winners over the field in their sections, Raleigh and Charlotte represent the best of the Class A high school quints in the State. Both are undefeated, but Charlotte has a more impressive record than the locals.

In addition to this game the leaders of the Class B schools, Rose Hill and Bakersville, will stage the final tilt to determine the champion of their class.

The locals are ready for the big clash. They practiced Tuesday afternoon on the Tin Can court and Coach Spurlock put them through the final drill.

Captain "Nero" Cox will lead the usual starters on the court with his aides as Rand and Hannah, forwards. The captain plays center.

*Best wishes,
Walter.*

SQUAD—Alvin Dunaway, Frank Jolly, Jack Dunaway, C. D. Ferrell, A. C. Kimrey, Turner Bilisoly, Seaman Hudson, Willis Williams, Leonard Peacock, Bill Dunaway, Harry Beddoes, Billy Hanna, Sloan Garlington, Johnny Miller, Grady Ferrell, Mortimer Ellisberg.

The fighting Dunaways and Captain Frank Jolly have given Raleigh High Schools the first recognized high school boxing championship of North Carolina as the results of the tournament held at Chapel Hill, February 12 and 13. The cup given to the schools for their remarkable showing was placed with other athletic trophies in the archives of the schools.

Bill Dunaway was the outstanding fighter for Raleigh High. He won his three bouts by knockouts, thus showing a vast superiority over all his foes. Jack and Al Dunaway won two bouts having drawn bye's in the first round of elimination, while Captain Jolly found it very easy to dispose of his three opponents.

Coach "Peele" Johnson, who for several years has been connected with the coaching staff of the Raleigh Public Schools, is to be highly commended for the splendid work he has done with the boxing team. "Peele" is thought of not only as a coach but as a man that can be classed with the best of sports whether victorious or defeated.

Baseball

Raleigh Highs began the 1931 season with seven regulars from last year's Eastern Championship team. The champs of 1930 won all conference games but one, losing to the Goldsboro nine. Coach Peele Johnson was expecting a good season for the 1931 aggregation. We expect to win the State Championship, and not lose in the finals again. Charlotte was the victor last year in an exciting game. With all the infield, two outfielders, and catcher back, Raleigh expects a banner season. Too, our fine coach and gentleman, J. P. Johnson will be with us.

Reeves, Rand, Scales, Womble, Thompson, Page, Vandergrift, and Austin are a list of the regulars expected back. The Purple and Gold looks for success and nothing short of a State Championship for the coming season.

Calendar

- September 2. School days are here again. Many new faces are seen in the assemblage. Our new principal, Mr. Shaw, was introduced to us. Everyone "looked him over" and approved.
3. Nothing much was accomplished today. Home rooms finally discovered and schedules issued. Many conflicts and no one satisfied.
 4. Books issued. No lockers—so everyone carries his arms full of precious volumes.
 5. Classes meet on regular schedule.
 8. Went to chapel today. A very unique privilege given to the Seniors, in that they will be permitted to "pass out first" in the future.
 9. Seniors have first class meeting of the year. Class officers and the annual staff elected. Half-holiday declared for the circus.
 10. Hall duty assigned to teachers—fewer loafers in the halls.
 11. Chapel this morning. Several important announcements. Students may patronize Pat's. No demerit system. Cheer leaders elected.
 13. "Bee" Cotner elected Editor-in-Chief of the LATIPAC.
 19. Football team made debut at League Park in a game with Henderson, 21-0 in our favor. Looking forward to many honors.
 25. Library finally opened for "studious students."
 26. Mt. Olive beaten 33-7. A good game for us.
 29. Girl's Athletic Association formed. Every girl a member.
- October 2. The Passion Play opened today. Many high school students given the privilege of playing in this world-famous production.
3. Football game today at Oxford. 13-0.
 8. The Junior and Senior Girl Reserves launched their membership drive with a very interesting chapel program.
 10. First conference game of the season at League Park with Fayetteville. Score 13-0 in favor of the Purple and Gold.
 13. Election of Senior Superlatives started. A busy time and practically all have to be voted on again. Fair opens today. Half-holiday granted to go out and see what's going on.
 14. Another Senior class meeting. Many important matters cared for. Dedicated the LATIPAC, decided on class flower, and class mascot.
 15. Reports given out. What a life! Six weeks gone and a detention hall organized. "We're in the Jail House Now."
 16. Seniors given special study halls. Put on their honor.
 17. All day given to the Fair. Football game with Whiteville.
 20. Seniors have pictures made. Everyone primps.
 23. Seniors get proofs—"nuff said!"
 24. Many students journey to Wilmington to see our team win 13-0. State Student Council Congress opens meeting here. Fox and Hound Chase sponsored by the Girl's Athletic Association.
 28. Senior class gives program to raise money. It was a "howling" success.
 28. Senior Dramatic Club organized.
 29. Teachers posed for the photographer.
 31. Sub-Freshmen have Hallowe'en party.
- November 1. Freshmen have Hallowe'en party in Gym.
4. Fred A. Olds Bank present chapel program. Mr. Crow from the Commercial National Bank guest of honor.
 5. "Happy Tim" Cole was brought to the school under the auspices of the Student Council.
 6. Pictures of classes and organizations taken.
 7. We beat our ancient rival—Durham—in football. Score 13-0.
 11. Armistice Day program in chapel. Col. Harrelson makes short patriotic speech. Big parade with R. O. T. C. and bands.
 13. Community Chest Drive opens in the school.
 14. Our team defeated Goldsboro's eleven, 21-0.
 17. Book Week is here. Skits from popular books given in chapel.
 18. Much rain this week. The rye in the yard is coming up—it won't be long now until we'll have rye bread for lunch.
 19. Just another Senior class meeting. Cabaret resolutions presented, discussed and accepted.
 20. The Annual Staff watched the "little birdie" today.
 21. Last conference game of the season. We tied Wilson.
 25. Senior girls win "hit pen baseball" championship.
 26. Thanksgiving holidays begin. Thanksgiving program presented by History Department. Second reports issued—my! what sour faces some of our brethren are wearing.
 27. Too much turkey and pumpkin pie, getting ready for the State Championship game Saturday. No school.
 28. Charlotte and our team battled in Chapel Hill for the State Championship. We lost by one touchdown.
- December 1. Back to school after the holidays.
2. Mr. Shaw in Atlanta this week. His departure seems to be a secret here at school.
 5. Another week without a chapel program. Just two weeks from today Christmas Holidays begin.
 9. Wallace, the Magician, here with a hat and sleeve full of mysteries to present to an awed audience.
 12. Junior class gave "A Poor Married Man," a very entertaining comedy, to defray the expense of the Junior-Senior——. Girl's Athletic Association Group pictures taken for the annual. The end of a perfect day! We met Rocky Mount in a boxing match and knocked them out.

- Dec. 15. Every one expecting snow today—all disappointed.
 16. A "dog show" for the band boy's uniforms. A good hand given the little dog from St. Louis.
 17. Snow blanket covering the entire city. Still snowing hard. Almost every student takes holiday, or is snowed in.
 18. Junior Dramatic Club presented Christmas play.
 19. "Good-bye 'till after Christmas—I hope Santa Claus is good to you."
 31. Back to school again. It is harder to get here on time now.
- January 1. "Happy New Year" greetings. Such celebration in the early morning of the new year.
 2. We have decided the old saying must be true—we worked yesterday, we are working today, and we will be working tomorrow (?).
 6. Exam schedule posted.
 7. Studying for exams! Why weren't text-books written in outline form?
 8. Woe be unto the negligent—exams have started.
 9. "Krazy Kat Kabaret" presented by the Seniors.
 20. Holiday—preparations being made for new Semester.
 21. New Semester begins. The usual tumult which follows new schedules.
 22. We meet new classes today. Many of our group find that they will need to do some studying to graduate.
 23. Basketball season opens with game between Wilson and Raleigh on home ground.
 30. Another basketball game—this time with Fayetteville. Many make trip to see our boys play.
- February 5. Another trip for the Basketball team—this time to Rocky Mount.
 12. Purple and Gold vs. Purple and Gold. The Basketball teams of Raleigh and Goldsboro fight for honors in the cage!
 12-13 Raleigh boxing team captures State High Championship at Chapel Hill. Captain Frank Jolly, Jack, Al, and Bill Dunaway win in finals.
 19. Raleigh is host today to Wilmington for basketball game.
 20. Raleigh defeats Lexington quint in good game.
 27. Durham brings her "five" down to show them to us.
- March 2. We blew into school a little earlier today—it is no wonder.
 3. Raleigh boxers meet strong Oak Ridge Prep team.
 4. Raleigh plays Charlotte for State High School basketball championship at Chapel Hill.
 20. First baseball game versus Clayton. Last years eastern champs start play with 8 regulars from the championship team.
 27. Physical Education Department's Pageant.
 30. Baseball begins for the girls.
- April 1. All Fool's Day. We shouldn't wonder since we were all here and trying to play tricks on our schoolmates.
 2. We hope we are in for a little rest.
 3. Easter Holidays begin.
 17. Junior-Senior Banquet. Every one ready to go with rings on fingers and bells on toes.
 22. Our teachers are wondering if the Seniors are really bright enough to go through final exams and graduate all in the same month—we wonder too, time will tell.
 24. Science Club has annual picnic today.
 25. District Commercial Contest. Raleigh's colors carried by a new group—business men and women of the future.
- May 7. Practice all hours of the night for Senior Play.
 8. Senior Play presented to large audience of friends.
 15. A banquet all for the Seniors. And did the Stately Seniors have a good time?
 20. Final Exams for the Seniors begin. Why can't the Seniors be exempt from Exams if they have managed to get to that stage.
 24. The Seniors become dignified at the Baccalaureate Sermon.
 25. This is one week when every person envies us. Nothing to do but loaf.
 26. Class Night practice. No one need envy the Seniors now.
 27. Class Night is here! Are we excited? Not much.
 28. We are all mourning just a little bit. Our High School Days are over.
 29. Graduation. The precious diplomas are in our hands. Are they all we have to show for our work? Some say, "Gone are the best days of your life." That remains to be proved. Goodbye, Broughton High, we can never forget our dear Alma Mater even in our dreams of tomorrow.

Final Words

WE have endeavored to make this book an accurate account of our life at high school.

We have worked hard to compile these records of the second volume of the LATIPAC. We realize that without the coöperation we have received, it would have been impossible to finish our task.

To Edwards & Broughton Company and especially to Mr. A. M. Beck, we express our deepest gratitude for his valuable suggestions and service.

We are very grateful to the workers at Siddell's Studio for their excellent photographs.

To Mr. W. H. Shaw we offer thanks for his assistance in our work.

The highest praise is due to the members of our staff and staff advisers for their untiring performance of duties.

To anyone who has helped to make our task more pleasant, we say, "Thank you."

The Latipac

I

Work! work! work! work!
Mrs. Glenn, Miss Thomas and the staff have worked like Turks;
But now—that all our work is done.
We'll begin to have some fun.

II

Oh boy! when those proofs were received;
All of us were relieved
Of the tasks that caused us pain;
But we later found they were not in vain.

III

Of course, some faults will be found;
But with them, the right thoughts are bound;
However, if you find something wrong and you have time,
Let us know and we'll send you a line.

IV

One member of a staff thought his assistant was
"sadly" diminished,
Although he was glad the darn thing was finished.
This spirit is not ours one bit,
And we hope every one enjoys reading "It"
The second volume of the LATIPAC.

BUILDERS DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to interpret the ideas of the Staff and create in material form their vision.

From the art work and engravings to the finished book, this volume is the result of organized coöperation with the Staff.

Such able coöperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

To those Staffs desiring complete coöperation from art work and engravings to the finished book, we offer unexcelled service. Complete service means undivided responsibility as to the result—one organization to correspond and talk with—one trained director to merge the many ingredients into the finished product.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.
